Dear valued partners,

Warm greetings from National Kaohsiung University of Science and Technology (NKUST)!

We are excited to invite our esteemed partners to participate in the upcoming international conference titled "Shaping Sustainability Transformation and Strategies." This event is co-organized by NKUST and the University of Applied Sciences Würzburg-Schweinfurt and will be held at our Jiangong Campus, Kaohsiung City, from December 4-6, 2024.

This conference will be a significant platform to exchange insights and foster discussions on sustainability strategies, innovative solutions, and transformation efforts. We believe this is a wonderful opportunity for your esteemed institution to join other experts and scholars in shaping the future of sustainability.

Important Dates:

- Submission of Long Abstract: October 15, 2024
- Early Bird Registration Deadline: October 30, 2024
- Conference Registration Deadline: November 15, 2024
- Conference Dates: December 4-6, 2024

We highly encourage your faculty and students to submit their abstracts by October 15, 2024, and take advantage of the early bird registration.

For more details on submission guidelines, please visit the conference website <https://sites.google.com/nkust.edu.tw/ssts2024/home?authuser=0>. We look forward to your active participation and hope to welcome your institution's representatives to Kaohsiung.

Should you have any questions or need further assistance, feel free to reach out to most2050@nkust.edu.tw.

Warm regards,

--
