Dear Permanent Secretary, dear Prof. Dr. Sirirung,

in the framework of excellent relations existing between Italy and Thailand, and in the spirit of further strengthening our collaboration in the academic field, which is crucial to economic development and the prosperity of our Countries, I would like to draw to draw your kind attention on the following matter, relating to the acknowledgement of Italian public Universities in Thailand.

The list of accredited foreign Universities published the Office of the Civil Service Commission (OCSC) does not include Italy. The website of OCSC is the following : <http://e-accreditation.ocsc.go.th/acc/search/internew/maininter.html> .

I would like to seek your kind cooperation in accrediting Italian Universities and academic Institutions list acknowledged by the Italian Government with the Thai academic system. The list is published at the following website and a copy is attached to this letter: <https://www.universitaly.it/index.php/public/accreditamentoAnvur> .

The accreditation of Italian Universities (some being among the most ancient in the world) would help solve difficulties encountered by Thai citizens who have studied and graduated in Italy and whose degrees are not easily recognized by the Thai Authorities. At the same time, Italian citizens who wish to apply to be lecturer or to work in the Thai academic Institutions are confronted with the same issues.

Italy welcomes Thai students who wish to study there. Italian universities increasingly offer courses in English. Students are able to apply directly or through the European Union Erasmus projects. We also offer each year Italian government scholarships for students from Thailand. In this framework, numerous students graduated in Italy and thereby secured an excellent professional future once back in Thailand.

Please accept, dear Permanent Secretary, the expression of my high consideration.

Lorenzo Galanti

Accreditamento periodico degli atenei

Ai sensi del D.lgs. 27 gennaio 2012 n. 19 e del DM n. 987 del 12 dicembre 2016, il Ministero dell'Istruzione dell'Università e della Ricerca avvalendosi dell'Agenzia nazionale di valutazione del sistema universitario e della Ricerca (ANVUR) sta gradualmente procedendo alla valutazione periodica delle sedi e dei corsi di studio ai fini del loro accreditamento periodico.

Con il termine "accreditamento periodico" si intende il processo volto a verificare sia la sussistenza dei requisiti già previsti per l'accREDITAMENTO iniziale, sia il possesso di ulteriori requisiti in termini di organizzazione interna, della qualità della didattica e della ricerca delle singole sedi. Il processo di accreditamento periodico è svolto dall'ANVUR, attraverso l'analisi dei risultati dell'ateneo e attraverso le visite in loco svolte dalle CEV (Commissioni di Esperti della Valutazione) e si conclude con una valutazione che colloca ogni ateneo in una delle seguenti classi di giudizio: molto positivo, pienamente soddisfacente, soddisfacente, condizionato, insoddisfacente. L'accREDITAMENTO periodico, avviato a partire dall'anno 2015 e che riguarderà tutte le Università italiane, ha cadenza almeno quinquennale per le sedi e almeno triennale per i corsi di studio.

Di seguito sono riportati i decreti ministeriali di accreditamento relativi agli esiti delle valutazioni finora concluse.
