A VISA IS NEEDED FOR THOSE WHOSE COUNTRIES ARE NOT LISTED IN ANY VISA EXEMPTIONS

Apply for VISA

Apply for VISA

Residing
outside Thailand

Apply for VISA

Currently staying in Thailand

Change of Current Institution to a New Institution Degree Program (already holding Non-Immigrant ED or ED+ VISA from current institution)

In case of a current Non-Immigrant ED
or ED+ VISA expiry date is less than 15 Days

Must leave Thailand then apply for a new VISA outside Thailand at Royal Thai Embassy or Consulate-General on respective country “Track A” page 12

In case of a current Non-Immigrant ED
or ED+ VISA expiry date is more than 15 Days

Can continue staying in Thailand

Then process the VISA Cancellation “Track C” below
C1 & C2 tracks are both required and suggest to process simultaneously.

Still it is risky to process the VISA Cancellation “Track C” while a VISA expiry date is less than 30 Days
in case of additional required documents.

*(fined and/or charged with overstaying if you are still staying in Thailand exceeding the current VISA expiry date)

First Entry

VISA Stamped “used”

Your VISA before entry

VISA or E-VISA issued by Royal Thai Embassy or Consulate-General

means the duration that you can enter Thailand with that VISA

Does not mean expiry date of that VISA
after you entering in Thailand

VISA stamped “used” after your entry

VISA or E-VISA has been used for your entry and is not valid anymore meaning you cannot re-enter Thailand with that VISA.

The expiry date of VISA staying in Thailand will be newly issued to valid for 90 days or less.

If you leave Thailand without Re-entry permit or unless stated in the VISA conditions, your VISA will be voided.

VISA stamped “used” Example

Fines & Illegal Conduct

Did not submit the Notification of Residence TM.30

Property owners can be fined for failing to report which may result in charging you instead up to 2,000 THB

You may experience issues with immigration procedures like visa extensions, 90-day reports, and re-entry permits if your TM.30 is not filed correctly.

Late Notification of staying in the Kingdom for more than 90 days

Fine: 2,000 THB for self-reported late filing Increased Fine: 5,000 THB for caught by authorities
Possible: Visa Complications & Deportation

Late VISA Extension & VISA Overstaying

Fines: 500 Baht per day, up to a maximum of 20,000 THB

Bans: Overstaying for more than 90 days can lead to a ban from re-entering Thailand.

The length of the ban varies

(e.g., 1 year for overstaying less than 1 year, 10 years for overstaying more than 1 year)

Immigration Record:

Overstaying can also negatively impact your immigration record,
potentially making it difficult to obtain future visas.

Do not attend class for a long period of time

Without an approved
Request for Retention of Student Status

The university will announce “Student Status Termination” to the immigration and issue
the Request for VISA Cancellation letter to you.

If you decide not to proceed with VISA Cancellation and continue to stay in the country.

You are guilty and could be charged and fined with overstaying and/or illegal staying.

It could lead to deportation and a ban from re-entering Thailand.

Social Etiquettes

Self

- Do treat older people with respect and majority of Thai people follow the exercise of seniority
- Do lower your body slightly when passing between people conversation
- Don't point your finger at person,
- Don't be overly affectionate in public
- Don't touch a person's head or ruffle their hair.
- Don't place your feet on any level above the knee-length
- Take off your shoes and hat before entering somebody's house or apartment

Property

- Don't leave any property to reserve table
- Don't Transfer any money to individual Bank account when making transactions with the university.

Thai Values

- Save Face
- Humor
- Hospitality
- Less Assertive Society by indirect communication (focus more on non-verbal)

SAVE FACE

Respect and self-control are important values. Raising your voice or showing anger is disrespectful.

SANUK

Have fun and maintain a sense of humour and it will bring more joy to you and those around you.

NAAM JAI

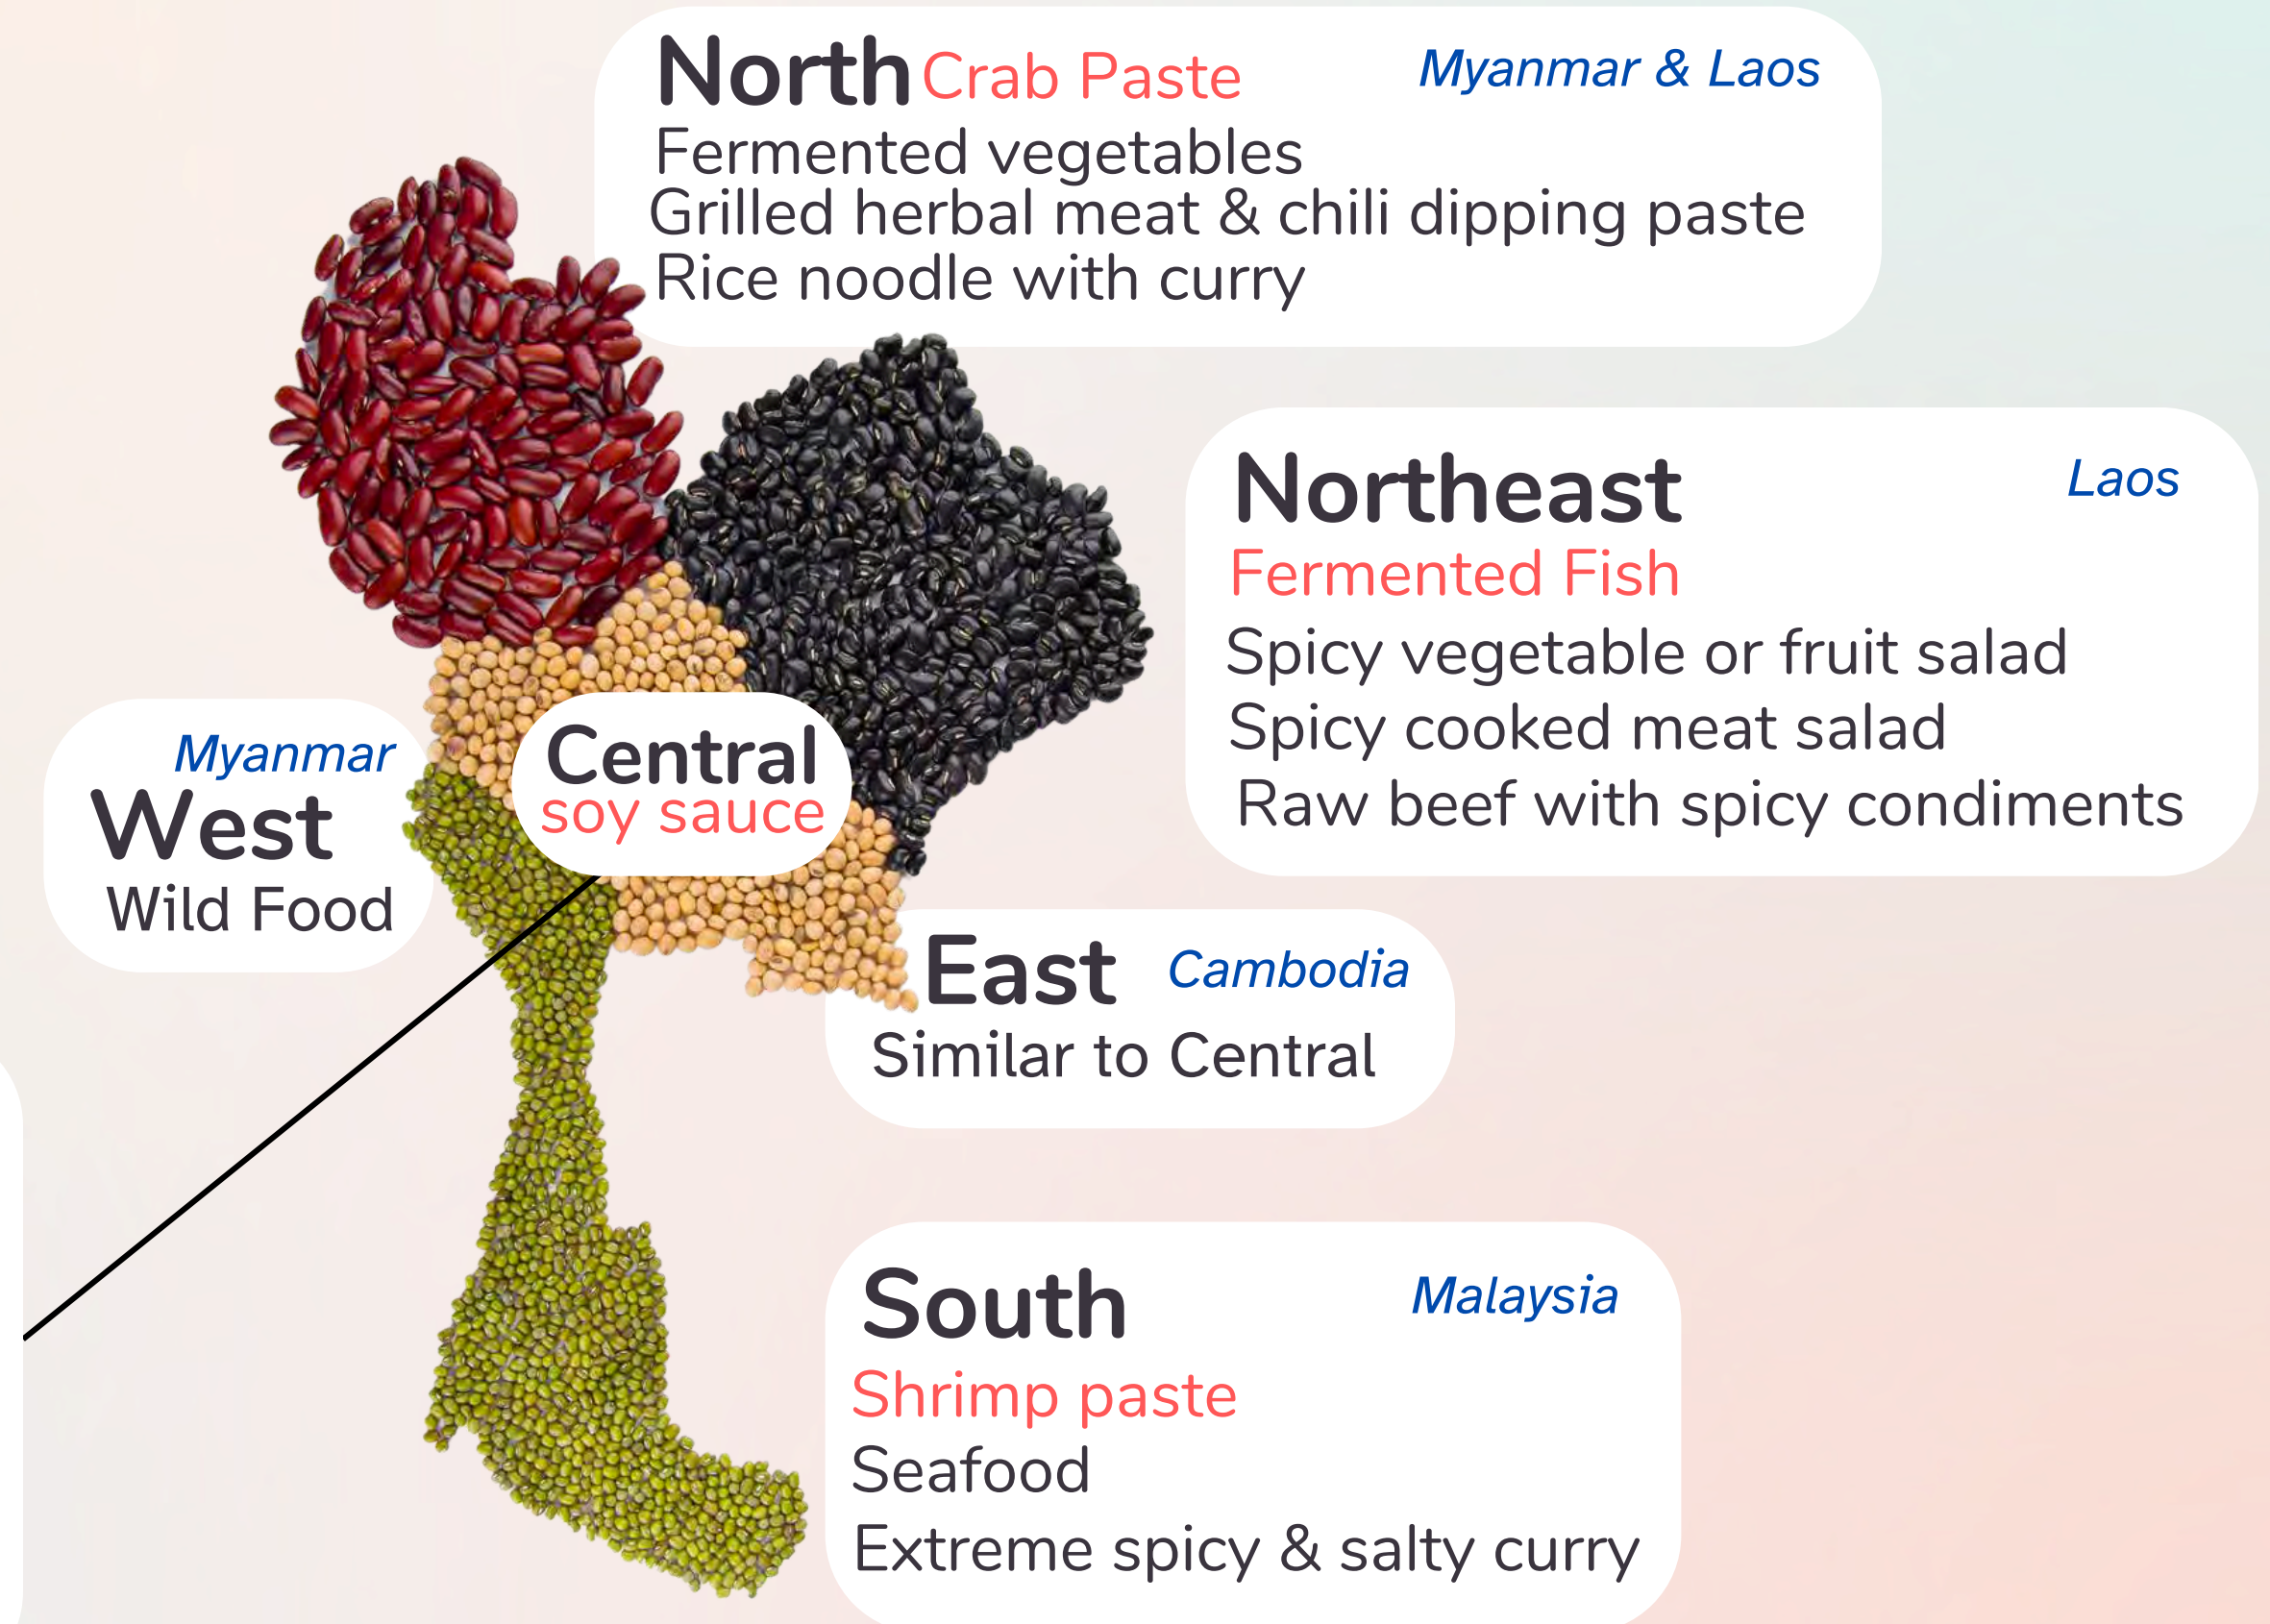

Translated as "water heart" and is similar to generosity but not limited to material things. The hospitality and helpfulness that Thai people are known for is the signature of naam jai.

MAI PEN RAI

No worries! This phrase encourages you to not get bent out of shape over minor incidents and disappointments in life. You will hear this every day in Thailand!
